Johnathan Kim (18)

Johnathan is a Pre-Med student who is a Trustee Scholar who will attend USC this fall. He started playing piano at the age of four and soon had an affinity for the instrument. He currently studies under Ms. Jenny Shin. This summer, he won a $1,000 scholarship from the Rotary Club Dan Stover Music Competition. Johnathan received 2nd alternate in the MTAC Solo Division 3 on April 29th, 2012. He also received the Gold Medal for the Junior Bach Festival WTC Book I in 2011. He also won the Bradshaw & Buono International Piano Competition (2nd Place, April 2011), Young Music Foundation Prestigious Scholarship (2011&2009), Certificate of Merit: Advanced (2009), Panel (2010), and Masters (2011), Liszt International Piano Competition (4th Place, November 2010), SYMF Open Solo Competition (1st Place, July 2010), Los Angeles Branch of Music Scholarship (1st Place, May 2010), Cypress College Contemporary Era Competition (1st Place, May 2010), and the SYMF Open Chopin Competition (1st Place, July 2009). Johnathan also performed in concerts, such as performing the Rachmaninoff's 2nd Piano Concerto in c minor with the Mt. Saint Mary's Orchestra and Conductor Chet Swaitkowski. He was invited to perform for the Liszt International Piano Competition Winner's Recital in the summer of 2011. In April 2012, he and his brothers performed at the Chino Hills High School Choir Concert to raise money for the school. Johnathan said his piano life has been the most inspirational part of his life, and will continue to be. As a fully devout Christian, he tries his best to live the true life of a Christian by helping people. As the founder of the JKT Music Foundation, he would like to share his talent in music by continuing to hold concerts for fundraising for those that need help. His hobbies are playing golf, basketball, and swimming, playing the clarinet and guitar, reading, watching biology videos, and cooking.
